NEW-YORK, April 14.

Extrait of a Letter from Albany, April 11.

ON Saturday the 19th instant an express arrived here from fort Edward, with advice that they had heard several guns fired at fort William Henry; about two hours after two expresses came in from the same place, which confirmed the above account, with the addition of a continual firing being heard; and as they made no doubt but that the fort was besieged by the French. Sunday the 20th, the alarm drum beat here, when every man that was capable of bearing arms was ordered to prepare for a march in half an hour, which we did, and rendezvoused at the Half-Moon, where we waited all the next day, in order that our whole force might be collected: That day a fourth express arrived, with an authentic account, that a numerous French army had been before fort William Henry, from the 19th in the morning had made several attacks upon the fort, but were as often bravely repulsed by the besieged. We were soon joined by all the regulars from this place and Schoenclady, and 700 brave highlanders, whom we computed our number to be, about 4000, including 25 Indians. We were to have been joined by another regiment from fort Edward, but upon our arrival there, we were informed that the enemy finding all their schemes against the fort proved abortive, were gone off, which chagrined us much, as we intended to have attacked them that night. I shall now give you an account how the enemy was first discovered.

Saturday the 19th about 2 o'clock in the morning, the centry on the east side of the fort discovered a light, it being very dark, which he challenged, but receiving no answer, he fired his musket. This soon alarmed the fort, when major Ayres, the commanding officer, immediately ordered a profound silence, that every man should stand to his arms, and keep a good look out; several people were then heard coughing on the ice, and the rangers, with a corporal's guard then out, were ordered in. Soon after the enemy endeavoured to approach the fort, but met with such a warm and unexpected reception, as soon obliged them to retire, having first fired their small arms, which did our people no hurt, and at day-light there was not the face of a Frenchman to be seen, but they returned again with all the quietness imaginable, intending as we first learned, to scale the walls of the fort, but our people kept so good a look out, and constant fire on them as they approached, that their design was frustrated.

Sunday morning the enemy's camp was discovered about a mile from the fort, by the smoke that appeared in the air. A party of rangers were immediately sent out to reconnoitre their encampment, which as soon as they approached, found the enemy to be very numerous. About 12 at noon they marched their whole army in sight of the fort, two miles deep, which extended more than a mile and an half on the ice, in order to intimidate the garrison, by shewing them their strength. This done, they sent out a captain, with 4 men, unarmed, and 12 at some distance from them armed. The captain came within 20 yards of the fort, waving a red flag, upon which major Ayres sent lieutenant Drummond of the 44th regiment, with the like number to meet them; they saluted each other in a very polite manner, after which the French officer delivered a letter to lieutenant Drummond, which he said was from his commanding officer, Monsieur Vaudreuil. This letter was sent to major Ayres by an English soldier, who, on reading the same, ordered the French officer to be blindfolded and brought into the fort, and that Mr. Drummond should remain hostage till his return, which being agreeable to both parties, the Frenchman was conducted to the major's own apartment, and having the handkerchief taken off his face, informed the major, that 'The commandant of the French forces on Lake Sacrament, desired he would give up the fort he had built on their majesty's land; that they would allow us all the honours of war; that our people should march out with their colours, and take with them their most valuable baggage, only leave the trifles to amuse the Indians; that if we were afraid of them, they had regulars enough to guard us from hurt; but if we were lifted, and obliged them to storm the fort, which they determined to do, that they would not answer for the cruelty of the savages, and they must expect every man to be put to the sword.' Major Ayres heard all the officer had to say very coolly, without interruption; after which he desired him, to give his compliments to Monsieur Vaudreuil, and tell him he had 1000 effective men, and that while 100 of them remained alive, he would not surrender; but that he would be extremely glad to see Monsieur, as soon as he pleased, being well prepared for his reception; and that when they pleased they might put their projects in execution; and so they parted.

Our people expected they would attack them immediately, but did nothing that day. At night they attempted to set fire to the fort, when they were prevented by the vigilance of the besieged. That night they burned a store house, and next day got on a hill, and continued firing till dark; their situation was such that the cannon could not hurt them much; but they were soon saluted with some shells, which obliged them to remove. We have made 3 prisoners, who were wounded and not able to march back to Ticonderoga. They say they were 1500 strong when they set out; that they have been preparing for this expedition since November last; that they brought 300 scaling ladders with them; that their orders and intentions were, to put all the fort to the sword, men, women and children; and that they would not have sent the flag of truce, had they not been frustrated in their design; and that they thought to frighten us out of the fort.

Several of their scaling ladders have been found; and 'tis computed we have killed 20 or 30 of the enemy, but we cannot be certain, as the snow is 4 feet deep in many places, and they drew all their blood out of sight. I could be more particular, but as the above are the grounds of the siege I hope it will suffice. We had but one man killed, and but 6 slightly wounded. The officers as well as the men behaved with the greatest resolution imaginable, and were determined to stand out to the last, rather than trull their lives in the hands of savages.

We are informed, that two armies, equal in number to M. Vaudreuil's, set out from Canada at the same time he did, one of which was destined to scour the Mahawks country, and meet M. Vaudreuil in Albany, but the destination of the third was not known, tho' it was generally thought they intended to march southward; and that the French in the late engagement with the brave capt. Rogers, had not less than 50 men killed and wounded.

LONDON, March 3.

Admiral Byng received his respite just in the same manner as he did his sentence.

The admirals Boscawen and Coates altered their flag to red the day before yesterday, being promoted.

A print is privately sold at the Hague, which represents the empress queen in a coach, the French king on the coach box, and the elector of Saxony in a Polish dress behind the coach as a footman. The coach comes to a gate where the king of Prussia stands centry. He asks the queen, Whether she is driving? She answers, My coachman will tell you. The coachman says, I am driving her into a slough. The driver says, says the centry.

Two clerks at a public office have lately been dismissed for receiving perquisites, to which some people have given the uncomely name of bribes. However they are both a drift and many others to the same fate, if perquisites should be called bribes.

Some letters from Paris of the 18th inst. report that in case war continued, the whole militia of France would be raised for the defence of his majesty and his allies.

It is given out that a fleet of 36 ships of the line, besides frigates, &c. will sail this spring for the Mediterranean; for which, if at a large train is already prepared, and a considerable body of troops will also be embarked on board this fleet.

His Majesty has directed 4 independent companies of invalids to be forthwith raised in Ireland.

We hear that the 39th regiment of foot, commanded by Col. Adcock, is ordered home from the East Indies.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 2.

THE last Post from Cape Fear, brought Advice, that two Companies of Soldiers were raising in North Carolina, with all possible Expedition, to be sent here: That the Regulars ordered hither from Philadelphia were ready to embark, when the last Accounts came from thence: And, that the Regulars and Provincials together, which may now be hourly expected, will make up a Body of 1300 Men. Governor Donns, in a Speech to the General Assembly of North Carolina, dated the 16th of May, wherein he recommends "the raising of the Quota of that Province with the greatest Dispatch" mentions them as designed "for the immediate Defence of their necessary Barrier and Frontier South Carolina." By which it seems, that neither Lord Loudoun, nor the North Americans are so supine, secure, and negligent with regard to our Safety, as (it has been said) we are of ourselves. — If it were necessary, many striking Instances might be given of the deplorable Fate of People that put themselves in too great SECURITY, but the Book of Judges (an Authority which we presume none will dispute) furnishes us with a very pertinent One, that may serve as well as Ten, and which (for the Benefit of such as are not provided with Bibles) we must beg Leave to present to our Readers. It is there recorded, That the Children of Dan lent of their Family, Five Men from their Coasts, to spy out the Land and search it, (the employing of Spies having been the Practice of all Nations and in every Age; in which the present Age, (the French particularly) have greatly improved). That, in their Travels they met with a Priest of their own Persuasion (French, or at least Romish Priests, are not supposed to be wanting any where; and are always very serviceable to, if not Spies themselves) whose Heart was glad, gave them good Encouragement, telling them they might go in Peace, that is, in Safety (and no Doubt gave them all the Intelligence they could desire). That they then proceeded on to LAISSE, and saw the People that were therein, how they dwelt CARELESS after the Manner of the Zidonians (and some Others that might be named) QUIET and SECURE, (apprehending, to be sure, that they NEVER should be disturbed, because they never had been; and, it some Few saw the Danger to which their Supinities exposed them, no Doubt, when they expressed their Apprehensions, the Rest (as in modern Times) reproached them with Weakness, Want of Courage, &c.] That when the Spies returned to their Brethren, and acquainted them, that they had seen the Land, that it was VERY GOOD, and that if they would go against it, they should come into a People SECURE [that is, a People who apprehended no Danger, and therefore had made no Manner of Provision against it; or, if they had, perhaps it was such as would be of very little or no Use] and to a large Land, where there was no Want of any Thing. [What greater Encouragement could they have!] That then, only SIX HUNDRED MEN of valour with Weapons of War, (lightly judging, that Six Hundred Men properly armed and disciplined, would easily overcome Ten or Twenty Times that Number not properly armed, undisciplined, and off their Guard) went forth to conquer this large and very good Land; and when they came unto LAISSE, found (as the Spies had reported) a People QUIET and SECURE; and they smote them with the Edge of the Sword, and burnt the City with FIRE: And there was no DELIVERANCE, because it was far from ZIDON — [Not so far from Zidon however, as some Parts of America from Britain, where the People are, if possible, MORE careless than the People of LAISSE]. — As the Scriptures were given for our Reproof, Instruction, and Warning, may we, if ever we are thus careless, make a due Use of this Example, before it be too late!

Last Sunday Evening arrived in Town, from Fort Loudoun at Tenise, Cap. Powell of the Provincials, and Lieutenant Gray of the Independent Companies, by whom our former Accounts, of the CHEROKEE's appearing to be much more hearty in our Interest than ever they have seemed before, are confirmed: As a Demonstration of which, Five Parties of them are already gone out to War, one headed by the Great Warrior of Chits, another by the Little Carpenter, a 3d by his Brother, a 4th by another warrior, and a 5th, even by the Man killer of Tellico. who he had not long before returned from New Orleans and the Alabama Fort, but so much distressed (when he heard how the Little Carpenter and his Companions were received here) that he declared at going out to War, he would not return without wiping off all Imputations of Disaffection to the People of Tellico.

On Monday last arrived here a Sloop from Antigua, in 18 Days, by which we have Advice of Admiral Cotes having touch'd there in his Way to Jamaica; and that all the West India Ships that came out under his Convoy were arrived, except two, which foundered by running foul of each other. While the Admiral was watering at St. Kitts, an Express came to him from Jamaica, with an Account of the Arrival of many capital French Ships of the Line at St. Domingo, with several Frigates, besides Transports full of Men, which hastened his Departure; and 'twas said Admiral Frankland would also go down to Jamaica, or at least send a 70 and a 50 Gun Ship to reinforce the Squadron there — Letters from Antigua of the 13th of May say, that the French Privateers continue to ruin their Trade; and that those work of Foes to Britons, the Inhabitants of St. Eustatia, by their confederate Trade and Alliance with our common Enemy, prevent their condemning the few Captures that are brought in; that no less than 20 fine large English Ships had been bought up within Six Weeks at Guadaloup, by these Renegades intermixed with the Dutch, in which the French have Part; that these Vessels are freighted full with Sugar, and tho' the Property may be more than 3 Parts, or perhaps entirely, French, yet being under Dutch Colours, and getting false Clearances from St. Eustatia, they evade the strict Examination of Privateers.

The next Day arrived in Town 3 French Deserters, who lately made their Escape from New Orleans, and sought for Protection among the Creek Indians, by whom they were delivered up to Mr. Pepper, the Agent of this Province, and by him sent on board. These Deserters we hear, have intimated that we shall not long remain undisturbed; and for that reason, have chosen to enter on board some Privateers rather than abide here.

Yesterday arrived here Capt. Judin from Barbados, but brings nothing new from thence. He touched at Bermuda in his Passage, where he informed us, a Dutch Schooner of about 70 Tons, laden with Sugars, Coffee, and Indica, had been carried in lately, by Capt. Frost in a Privateer he sailing to that Island; that the whole Cargo, being French, was condemned, but the Vessel released, and that Capt. Luther, in another Bermuda Privateer, had taken about a Dozen of Ladies and Gentlemen, in a Pleasure Boat from the Cape, for whose Ransom he got 4000 Dollars.

The Lovely Matty Vance, from this Port, for St. Kitts, was taken by a French Privateer, and retaken by His Majesty's Ship the Standard.

The Clifton, Gibbons, from this Port, for Leghorn, put into Bermuda the beginning of April last, having sprung a Leak, and was obliged to be new sheathed.

The Number of Ships lately built at Bress, Rochefort, &c. amounting from 30 to 40 Guns on one Deck, and drawing under Fourteen Feet Water, are said to amount to 17 Sail, and that 3 more were on the Stocks near finished.

Our last Letters from Georgia are dated the 24th ult. and advise, that Capt. Leslie arrived there the month, and had really brought the Indian Presents, besides 200 Stand of fire Arms, a considerable Quantity of Powder and other warlike Stores. The Governor Ellis had received undoubted Intelligence, that that Colony would soon be visited by a much more effectual Manoe. That by Capt. Leslie they had Advice, that the Society for encouraging Arts, Commerce and Manufactures, had resolved to give a Premium of 3d. Sterling on each Pound of Silk Balls raised in Georgia, of a good Quality, 2d. on each Pound of an inferior Quality, and 1d. on each Pound of the Lowest Quality. The Government at Home already gave 3d. for every Pound of Silk Balls produced there, which is double the Value, so that from this high Price and the necessary Bounty, they hope soon to see that Manufacture flourish among them, especially as the Climate and Soil are so favourable. That on the 23d arrived there, one Capt. Jagger from the Bay of Honduras, who on the 14th fell in with 3 French Men of War, off the West End of Cuba, one of 64 Guns, and 3 Frigates of 36 each, convoying 9 Vessels, which appeared to be Transports, and all sailing up the Bay of Mexico, for the Mississippi; that Jagger being in Company with another English Vessel which failed, very fast, the French did not think proper to give Chase, altho' within Gun Shot, and only hoisted English Colours, and that these Transports were judged to have large Quantities of Provisions on board as well as Troops, such having been some Time expected on Mississippi. And that the People of Georgia seem inclined to set up the Example, of fitting out a good Provincial Vessel to guard the Coast and protect Trade this Summer, against the Insults of French Privateers, (having some Reason to expect a Brigg and Schooner will soon appear fitted out from some Port in the Spanish), and they mention Capt. Seth Place (a well known, brave and experienced Seaman) as the Person who will probably have the Command of her.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated May 11. You'll see by our Gazettes what a Spirit of Loyalty prevails in this Island. Col. Rofs the present Commandant of the Regiment stationed here, has been in all the Engagements during the late War, and for his noble Exploits, particularly at Falkirk and Culloden, is a very great Favourite with a certain very great General. His Regiment is now augmented to 700 Men, 100 of which came out in the Fleet which arrived last Week, and 200 more are shortly expected. He has a good Fortune, and makes a generous Use of it; his Table, which is always elegant, being open to his Officers, and other Gentlemen; and every private Soldier, who goes upon business, meets with a hearty Welcome from the Butler, by the Colonel's Order. God grant that Men of such good Sense may ever be so in Affection.

STRAY'D or stolen off Charles

Town given, some time in April last, a very bright bay horse, about 13 hands high, with a dark mane and tail, a small star in his forehead, cropt a little on the right ear, has several saddle spots, one of the hoofs of his hind feet something split, the right side of his mouth looks white where he was cut with a bridle, and has a brand on his buttock almost worn out, quite thin in flesh when he went away, but may be by this time much fatter. Whoever delivers him to Mr. Benjamin Godfrey in Charles Town, shall have two dollars reward, and no unnecessary questions asked.

CHARLES.
 That the Providence, Newton, the Shropshire, Rodinson, the Industry, Berland, the Mary Ann, Salmon, the Minerva, Weyland, and the Swaney, Yankee, all from hence for London, were taken by French Privateers: The first carried into Granville; the 2d to Briss; the 3d re taken, but her Indico was taken out; and the 3 last into St. Malo's—On board these Vessels were 107,194 lb of Carolina INDICO, 112,495 lb. of which Weyland carried.

That the Charming Nancy, White, the Charming Martha, Chifman, and the Friendship, Coats, having on board 248,182 lb. of Carolina INDICO, were missing Ships, and 50 per Cent. offered for Insurance upon them. And that the Premium for Insurance on Vessels expected to sail from hence in March last, was 30 per Cent.

That the Jobs, Young, from this Port for Liverpool, was lost on the 23d of March near Whitehaven, and every Soul perished, except a little Boy.—This Vessel had on board 11,895 lb. of our Indico.

That on the 6th of March, as terrible a Storm as ever had been known, had been felt upon the Western Coast of England, which did great Damage at Liverpool (where many Vessels were sunk, driven on Shore, &c.) and Chelster, &c. &c. &c.

That on the 7th several Dispatches arrived at Whitehall, from Petersburgh, Copenhagen, Dresden, and Hanover, of great Importance; and a Notification from the King of Prussia, of the March of the Russians, and their actual Commission of Hostilities in several Prussia—Later Accounts, represent the Prussian Monarch as well prepared to dispute their Passage into Saxony.

That on the 6th, two French Squadrons sail'd from Port L'Orient and Briss.

That on the 9th another Squadron sail'd from Briss, consisting of 16 Ships of the Line, with 12 Frigates, besides Fireships and Transports.

That on the 14th Mr. Byng was shot on board the Minerva.

That on the 15th died, Dr. Herring, Archbishop of Canterbury, and on the 2d of April Admiral Stewart.

That late in the Month, le Bien Aquis, and l'Esperance two Store Ships or Transports, from Richelle for Mississippi, (who came out with 25 others of the same sort, and defied the same Way, but had parted from their Convoy), loaded with Soldiers, Provisions, Cannon, Mortars, Shells, Powder, Soldiers Clothing, &c. were taken and carried into Briss; the former by the Tyger Privateer, and the latter by the Celator.

That Admiral West was returned to England, having been no farther than the Bay of Biscay.

That there are an incredible Number of Privateers at Sea from all the Ports of France, who have taken a prodigious Number of English Vessels. Amongst others that fell into their Hands in March last, no less than 4 Packet Boat, one from Holland, with 360 Ingots of Gold on board, two from the Grays, and one for Lisbon—where Earthquakes continue.

That Capt. Forster of the Anti-Gallican Privateer, soon after he put into Cadix, with the French Indiaman his Prize (some time in January last), had Liberty from the chief Admiral to refit both Vessels, and to have whatever he wanted out of the King's Yard, the same as the King's Ships, and received the greatest Civilities from the Spaniards in general: But, that on the 28th of February the Governor of Cadix sent for, and acquainted him, he had Orders to deliver up his Prize to the French, upon which he immediately went on board her; that upon this, the Governor ordered a 60 Gun and a 30 Gun Ship to lay alongside of her, which they did, and ordered Capt. Forster to strike his Colours, but he refusing to do it, both the Men of War began to fire upon her; and continued firing three Quarters of an Hour, and one full Quarter, and then with 3 Companies of Foot, and 2 Companies of Grenades, they boarded the Ship.—The French Primary Lieutenant, may probably have been some squabbling Minion, for it is not likely that such a maritime Power as Britain will tamely bear with such an Indignity offered to its Flag.

That His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland was gone over to Hanover, to command an Army of Observation.

That a new and very great Change in the British Ministry, had taken Place the 1st and 2d Weeks in April. And,

That Admiral Holburne sail'd for Cort the 16th of that Month (and not before!), with 16 Ships of the Line, and 70 Transports, to take on board the Forces destined for North America.

The Ships just arrived, parted with the Merlin Man of War 5 Days after they sail'd from England: And have brought in two Clergymen, the Rev. Mr. Fayerweather for Prince George's Parish, and the Rev. Mr. Serjeant for Christ Church, with Mr. Brown, Mr. Zinsli, and Doct. Glen.

This Day sail'd on a Cruise against His Majesty's Enemies, the TAU-PLUE and LYTTLETON Privateers of this Port, commanded by Capt. Thomas Tucker, and Capt. Miles Tidar.—The Lyttleton was the first Privateer fitted out here, mounting 2 Carriages and 8 Swivel Guns, and carried about 30 Men as her late Cruise, when commanded by Capt. Tucker.

Since our last we have Letters from Georgia dated the 3d Instant, which are more explicit than our former Account relative to the French Ships that were seen on the 14th ult. viz. the Transports are said to be very large, and crowded all the Sail they possibly could, the Men of War sailing in a Line, with the Transports on each Wing, and steering about N.W., and not one of them offered to chase Mr. Tyger's Vessel, (who came to settle in Georgia with 60 Negroes). If this Account is compared with the one that mentions the Bridel Privateers taking of two Transports destined for Mississippi, Who can doubt the 1st Vessel being bound thither? But, we are somewhat like St. Thomas, we must FEEL before we can BELIEVE, which God grant we may not!

Our Letters add, that a 2d Party of Creek Indians were just come to Savannah, amongst whom were said to be some of the principal Headmen, who were going to have a Talk.—The 1st Party was Capt. Allick and his Brother with some others: They gave strong Assurances of their Friendship, accepted of War Commissions, and had some of the Presents (opportunately brought by Capt. Lefleur) distributed amongst them.

The Black-Snake Privateer, of Rhode Island, Capt. Tyler, which put into Tybee the 12th ult. the Evening before parted with a large Sloop, from Mississippi for St. Eustatia, which she had taken, loaded with Indico, Hides, Tobacco, Logwood, and some Cash, navigated with Spaniards and Frenchmen. The said Privateer having careened in Georgia, sail'd again on a Cruise the 22d. The Prize was ordered for Rhode Island.

It has lately been discovered, in America, that many French Ships from Europe, have escaped being brought into Port by the English Men of War and Privateers that have visited them, by putting into some Ports of Spain, and producing fraudulent Clearances, Invoices, &c. from thence. In short, our Cruizers now rarely meet Vessels in the Track to and from, and about the French Islands, but what are or pretend to be either Dutch or Spanish, in these Times.

IN the Night of Saturday the 4th instant was stolen, out of the subscriber's stable, (the door being broke open) a small grey horse, between 12 and 13 hands high, branded on the mounting shoulder G K. on the mounting buttock on, and on the off buttock I L. Ten pounds currency reward will be given to any person who shall give information hereof so that the offender be brought to Justice, and 40 shillings to any Person that may bring the said horse to me, should he be found. Peter Bacet.

STRAY'D or stolen off Charles Town green, some time in April last, a very bright bay horse, about 13 hands high, with a dark mane and tail, a small star in his forehead, cropt a little on the right ear, has several saddle spots, one of the hoofs of his hind feet something split, the right side of his mouth looks white where he was cut with a bridle, and has a brand on his buttock almost worn out, quite thin in flesh when he went away, but may be by this time much fatter. Whoever delivers him to Mr. Benjamin Godfrey in Charles Town, shall have two dollars reward, and no unnecessary questions asked.

CHARLES-TOWN. June 9.

OUR Advice from London by the Capitaine Ball and Carling, who are just arrived, with His Ship Maj. Gen. Arundel, commanded by John Knight, Esq; is 8 Weeks from Falmouth, are, viz.

That the Providence, Newton; the Shropshire, Raffles; the Industry, Barland; the Mary Anne, Salmund; the Miserva, Westlake; and the Swanney, Langdon, all from hence for London, were taken by French Privateers: The first carried into Granville; the 2d to Brest; the 3d re taken, but her Ladico was taken out; and the 3 last into St. Malo's—On board these Vessels were 167,194 lb of Carolina INDICO, 112,495 lb. of which Westlake carried.

That the Charming Nancy, White; the Charming Martha, Chiffman; and the Friendship, Coutts, having on board 248,182 lb. of Carolina INDICO, were on fire Ships, and 50 per Cent. offered for Insurance open them. And that the Premium for Insurance on Vessels expected to sail from hence in March last, was 30 per Cent.

That the John Young, from this Port for Liverpool, was lost on the 23d of March near Whitby, and every Soul perished, except a little Boy.—This Vessel had on board 11,895 lb. of our Indico.

That on the 6th of March, as terrible a Storm as ever had been known, had been felt upon the Western Coast of England, which did great Damage at Liverpool (where many Vessels were sunk, driven on Shore, &c.) and Chester, &c. &c. &c.

That on the 7th several Dispatches arrived at Whitehall, from Petersburgh, Copenhagen, Dresden, and Hanover, of great Importance; and a Notification from the King of Prussia, of the March of the Russians, and their actual Commission of Hostilities in Central Prussia—Later Accounts, represent the Prussian Monarch as well prepared to dispute their Passage into Saxony.

That on the 6th two French Squadrons sail'd from Port L'Orient and Brest.

That on the 9th another Squadron sail'd from Brest, consisting of 16 Ships of the Line, with 12 Frigates, besides Fireships and Transports.

That on the 14th Mr. Byng was shot on board the Albatross.

That on the 15th died, Dr Herring, Archbishop of Canterbury, and on the 2d of April Admiral Stewart.

That late in the Month, le Bien Aquis, and FELICITE, two Store-ships or Transports, from Rochelle for Mississippi, (who came out with 25 others of the same sort, and destined the same Way, but had parted from their Convoy), loaded with Soldiers, Provisions, Cannon, Mortars, Shells, Powder, Soldiers' Cloathing, &c. were taken and carried into Bristol; the former by the Lyger Privateer, and the latter by the Cesar.

That Admiral West was returned to England, having been no farther than the Bay of Biscay.

That there are an incredible Number of Privateers at Sea from all the Ports of France, who have taken a prodigious Number of English Vessels. Amongst others that fell into their Hands in March last, no less than 4 Packet Boat, one from Holland, with 360 Ingots of Gold on board, two from the Greys, and one for Lisbon—where Earthquakes continue.

That Capt. Forster of the Anti-Gallican Privateer, soon after he put into Cadix, with the French Indiaman his Prize (some time in January last), had Liberty from the chief Admiral to refit both Vessels, and to have whatever he wanted out of the King's Yard, the same as the King's Ships, and received the greatest Civilities from the Spaniards in general: But, that on the 28th of February the Governor of Cadix sent for, and acquainted him, he had Orders to deliver up his Prize to the French, upon which he immediately went on board her; that upon this, the Governor ordered a 60 Gun and a 30 Gun Ship to lay alongside of her, wh ch they did, and ordered Capt. Forster to strike his Colours, but he refusing to do it, both the Men of War began to fire upon her, and continued firing three Quarters of an Hour, and eye full Quarter after all the Colours were struck, killing and wounding several, and then with 5 Companies of armed Men took Possession of the Ship.—This extraordinary Proceeding may probably be a Step towards acquiring Minerco, for it is not likely that such a maritime Power as Britain will tamely bear with such an indignity offered to its Flag.

That His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland was gone over to Hanover, to command an Army of Observation.

That a new and very great Change in the British Ministry, had taken Place the 18 and 21 Weeks in April And,

That Admiral Holburne sail'd for Cork the 16th of that Month (and not before!), with 16 Ships of the Line, and 70 Transports, to take on board the Forces destined for Norib America.

The Ships just arrived, parted with the Merlin Man of War 5 Days after they sail'd from England: And have brought in two Clergymen, the Rev. Mr. Fagerweather for Prince George's Parish, and the Rev. Mr. Sergeant for Christ Church, with Mr. Brewster, Mr. Lislie, and Doct. Glen.

This Day sail'd on a Cruise against His Majesty's Enemies, the TAU-FLUR and LYTTELTON Privateers of this Port, commanded by Capt. Thomas Tucker, and Capt. Miles Tassar.—The Lytelton was the first Privateer fitted out here, mounting 2 Carriage and 8 Swivel Guns, and carried about 30 Men on her late Cruise, when commanded by Capt. Tucker.

Since our last we have Letters from Georgia dated the 3d Instant, which are more explicit than our former Account relative to the French Ships that were seen on the 14th ult. viz the Transports are said to be very large, and crowded all the Sail they possibly could, the Men of War sailing in a Line, with the Transports on each Wing, and steering about W.N.W. and not one of them offered to chase Mr. Tucker's Vessel, (who came to settle in Georgia with 60 Negroes). If this Account is compared with the one that mentions the Bristol Privateers taking of two Transports designed for Mississippi, Who can doubt these Vessels being bound thither? But, we are somewhat like St. Thomas, we must FEEL before we can BELIEVE, which God grant we may not!

Our Letters add, that a 2d Party of Creek Indians were just come to Savannah, amongst whom were said to be some of the principal Headmen, who were going to have a Talk. The 1st Party was Capt. Ellick and his Brother with some others: They gave strong Assurances of their Friendship, accepted of War Commissions, and had some of the Presents (opportunately brought by Capt. Lislie) distributed among them.

The Black-Snake Privateer, of Rhode Island, Capt. Tyler, which put into Tybee the 12th ult. the Evening before parted with a large Sloop, from Mississippi for St. Eustatia, which she had taken, loaded with Indico, Hides, Tobacco, Logwood, and some Cash, navigated with Spaniards and Frenchmen. The said Privateer having cruised in Georgia, sail'd again on a Cruise the 22d. The Prize was ordered for Rhode Island.

It has lately been discovered, in America, that many French Ships from Europe have escaped being brought into Port by the English Men of War and Privateers that have visited them, by putting into some Ports of Spain, and producing fraudulent Clearances, Invoices, &c. from thence. In short, our Cruisers now rarely meet Vessels in the Track to and from, and about the French Islands, but what are or pretend to be either Dutch or Spanish, in these Times.
